HAREWOOD ESTATE

GREAT SOUTHERN WESTERN AUSTRALIA

BY THE BOTTLE

Harewood Estate was planted in the 1980s as a source vineyard for Chandon Sparkling. Eventually it became a source vineyard for lauded winery Howard Park – being the primary fruit source for their quite famous Scotsdale Road Chardonnay.

James Kellie was the Dux of the winemaking course at Charles Sturt Uni in Wagga Wagga, as a result he was offered a winemaking role with Howard Park for a vintage. By 1998 James had started making the wines for Harewood Estate, as part of his now permanent role at Howard Park. In 2003 the couple who owned Harewood decided it was time for them to retire, so James and Careena Kellie bought Harewood Estate and started retaining the fruit for their own wine, leading to the end of the Howard Park Scotsdale Road Chardonnay!

More than twenty vintages later, the purpose of Harewood Estate is to demonstrate the diversity and capacity of the Great Southern district of Western Australia. Six hours south of Perth and drawing its weather from Antarctica (rather than the Indian Ocean, like Margaret River), the Great Southern is the largest appellation in the world, it is truly cold in parts (Porongurups and Denmark) and continental (warm during the day, cold at night) in Mt Barker and Frankland River.

As a result, Harewood Estate are able to present classic examples of classic grapes, that require different climates – riesling, chardonnay and pinot noir from the cooler districts and shiraz and cabernet sauvignon from the warmer inland districts.

SOMMELIER'S SELECTION

At Bopp & Tone we celebrate the immense expertise and diversity in the Australian winemaking industry by not only championing the country's icons, but also supporting and celebrating new, emerging, talented independent wine makers. This section of our wine list will feature a rotating selection of rising stars on their way to becoming the next generation of Australian icon producers.

GULLYVIEW ESTATE - CLARE VALLEY, SA

Anthony and Christine Koerner purchased Gullyview Vineyards on 15th May 1987. From these beginnings, they built a reputation for producing some of Australia's highest-quality grapes. Rather than making wine themselves, they focused solely on viticulture, supplying fruit to a small selection of respected wineries and winemakers.

In 2023, their son Jono Koerner, together with his partner Megan Jenkin, established Gullyview Estate. The wines pay homage to Anthony and Christine's life's work, thoughtfully crafted to express the character of the vineyard and the place they proudly call home.

Prior to founding Gullyview Estate, Jono spent a decade in business with his brother Damon Koerner, co-founding Koerner Wine in 2014. After ten successful years, the brothers chose to pursue individual paths and with this Jono began the next chapter with Gullyview Estate.

Gullyview Estate is located in Leasingham, in the southern Clare Valley. The vineyard is planted on terra rossa and red clay over limestone soils, at elevations ranging from 350 to 450 metres above sea level. Cold nights and warm days create significant diurnal temperature variation, producing acid driven, fruit-forward wines with clarity and precision.

2025	Lot Two Three, Riesling , Clare Valley, SA	85
2025	Albert's, Vermentino , Clare Valley, SA	85

IGGY WINES - ADELAIDE HILLS, SA

Born from extensive travelling and invaluable experiences gained working alongside prominent winemakers, such as Jean-Louis Chave and Dave Powell. Established in 2019, Iggy Wines produces artisanal, small-batch cuvées with a focus on structural balance and aromatic purity while working with native yeast. Sourced from carefully selected vineyards across the Adelaide Hills and the Barossa, the wines harmonise Old World savouriness with New World fruit intensity. The portfolio highlights a deep affinity for Rhône varieties roussanne, marsanne, and syrah, alongside a pioneering commitment to rebula (ribolla gialla), a tribute to the Slovenian heritage of the couple behind the brand, Igor Kucic and Timna Kordic.

Chenin Blanc & Neighbours

Chenin Blanc, a super adaptable variety from France's Loire Valley, a chameleon that makes dry through to intensely sweet wines, and it's acidity lends itself to sparkling wine production. You'll also find a selection of varietes from neighbours of the Loire.

Chardonnay

Oh chardonnay, you're in and out of fashion, but never out of favour with true wine lovers. A shape-shifter of a variety, widely influenced by where it's grown and how it's made, steely and lean, to broad and voluptuous, chardonnay does it all.

Grenache & Friends

Grenache is McLaren Vale's rising star variety, no slouch in other areas of Australia either, its origins, a little know fact, are Spanish. Called garnacha in it's home country, it has spread across the Mediterranean, it can be found in Sardinia, know as cannonau, and the south of France, where the more globally recognised name grenache is used.

Australia's most widely loved, and planted, grape variety, grown in almost every region in Australia, our love affair with shiraz is long and storied. Known as shiraz in only Australia, France's Rhône Valley is its origin, known there and globally as syrah.

Malbec

Whilst Argentina has in the past few decades popularised malbec with their own very distinct range of expressions, most notably from the altitudinous reaches of the Andes in the region of Mendoza, it in fact originates from a small corner of Southwest France, Cahors, where it is locally known as côt.
